SUMMARY OF BALLOTS RELATED TO SECOND AMENDED PLAN FILED SEPTEMBER 13, 2023

Come now, Tommy Dewayne Dobson and Anne Christine Dobson, the debtors and debtors-in-possession (the "Debtors"), by counsel, and submit this summary of the ballots (the "Summary") received in connection with the Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization (the "Plan") filed and proposed by the Debtors in this case on September 13, 2023.

Other than as specified herein, no other creditors or interest holders submitted ballots for or against the Plan prior to the deadline of October 5, 2023, as set by the Amended Order And Notice Under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 Fixing Dates For Hearing On Confirmation Of Plan; Filing Acceptances Or Rejections Of Plan; And Filing Objections To Confirmation Of Plan, as entered by this Court on September 14, 2023 [Dkt. No. 131].

The Plan identified the impaired classes under the Plan to include the creditors in Classes 1, 2, 4 & 5.

With respect to the creditors in the impaired Class 1 and impaired Class 2, no ballots were received.

With respect to the creditors in the impaired Class 4, two ballots were received as indicated in the chart below.<sup>1</sup>

| Creditor               | Class | ClaimAmount | POC# | Vote                                 |
|------------------------|-------|-----------------|----------|--------------------------------------|
| Roy & Mary Whitley     | 4     | $3,350.00      | 31       | Ballot Rejects Plan                  |
| Aric & Laura Holsinger | 4     | $3,350.00      | 26       | Ballot Accepts PlanRec'd 10/6/23 |

With respect to the creditors in the impaired Class 5, eighteen (18) ballots were received. Nine (9) creditors voted to accept the Plan, representing 32% of the amount of the claims that voted in Class 5. Nine (9) creditors voted to reject the Plan, representing 68% of the amount of the claims that voted in Class 5.

A summary of all ballots received is shown below.

| Creditor                       | Class | ClaimAmount | POC#             | Vote                             |
| Glen & NancyLittlefield    | 5     | $457,962.00    | 23                   | Ballot Rejects Plan <sup>2</sup> |
| Jonathan & LindaAlexander  | 5     | $1,530,523.58  | 38                   | Ballot Rejects Plan              |
